

Are There Rocks in My Bag?

Tess Wall

713-824-0858

Visit www.janusrising.com to schedule a call
email: tess@janusrising.com

Abstract

Every leader wants a high-functioning team that collaborates, communicates, and contributes effectively toward the organization's goals. However, we often run into hidden obstacles that hinder a team's ability to be effective, therefore hindering an organization's growth. These hidden obstacles weigh high-functioning teams down like heavy rocks in a suitcase. If untreated, these rocks will create larger problems such as disempowerment, quiet quitting, and ineffective teamwork.

In this impactful keynote you'll learn how to discover hidden obstacles that could be slowing your team down and take steps to remove them so your team can operate at their full potential. Audiences will learn how to identify and implement various communication styles, and leave with tools necessary for improved teamwork & collaboration.

Participants will:

- Learn the top 5 rocks that create every day barriers to communication
- Learn the steps to remove obstacles that can cause misunderstandings, confusion and disagreements
- Create a roadmap for you to turn every day burdens in to advantages
- Embrace and understand the benefits of a truly effective team